S.A. Walton

With L. Hamel, B. Burtka, A. Feys, I. ProvoastC. Pfau

The following roll call is as complete a list of those who served in the American Expeditionary Forces (or one in the Canadian Forces who is buried in Houghton Co.) during WWI. Additions and corrections are welcomed; please email ww1cc@mtu.edu with any further information.

For those researching draft registration cards—the US made registration mandatory with the Selective Service Act (aka Selective Draft Act) of 18 May 1917—would need to obtain microfilm reels from the National Archives. See this page for further information.

[2] "World War I," 1pp. printed page from unidentified source in Copper Country Archives Vertical File "World War, 1914-1918", MTU Archives. This source is printed in Helvetica, so it probably post-dates 1990 at least.

[I added in ink afterwards," 10pp. typescript in Copper Country Archives Vertical File "World War, 1914-1918", MTU Archives. The list must predate WWII as the "I" was added to the title. In addition, pp. 7-10 are current addresses for many of the men, and many of them are still in the military, so this list may be from 1917 or 1918 (which may mean the pencil/crayon notation on the first page "1917-18" refers to when this dates from, but just when the war was on).
